Important Dates

Registration Deadline: May 11, 2018

Program days include Saturdays but do not include Sundays. Students can spend the day with their homestay families or relatives on Sundays.

Saturday, August 04 is the departure day. Students leave homestay.

Program Description

Regular Day Schedule:

Monday to Saturday
9am – 4pm

Location:

Earl Haig Secondary School,
100 Princess Avenue,
Toronto, ON, M2N 3R7

- English classes and school activities for 8 classroom days. Listening, speaking, reading and writing skills are all taught through themes of global and environmental awareness. Other activities may include trips in the neighbourhood such as the local fire hall and nearby markets
- Day trips include excursions to downtown Toronto (CN Tower, The Royal Ontario Museum, University of Toronto campus tour) and outside of the city (Toronto Zoo, Niagara Falls and our Outdoor Education Centres)

- In addition, students will attend one of our Outdoor Education Centres for two and a half days. Located about one hour from Toronto, our Outdoor Education Centres are owned and operated by the Toronto District School Board. The students will participate in outdoor and indoor educational activities such as: hiking, orienteering and survival skills to promote their leadership, confidence and team work skills in an English only environment.
